

Nutrition & Wellness

CLUB

September 2020

Welcome to the fall semester at Allan Hancock College! Our Nutrition & Wellness Club is going to get together online to plan some fresh activities and events for this year. Although in-person events will be managed differently due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we can still connect in safe and fun ways. All Hancock students are welcome to participate in this club. Join us to learn, grow, share, and enjoy good food and good health.

First Club Meeting in Zoom:
Wednesday, September 9, 4:00 p.m.
